Winds blow migrants to UK shores

LARGE numbers of migrants are arriving in the UK following days of high winds in the English Channel.

The Border Force yesterday deployed extra resources to the Dover Strait as crossings have resumed in earnest because of the calm seas.

More than 100 people thought to be migrants have been seen arriving in Dover harbour wrapped in blankets and wearing lifejackets.

People have had to queue up and wait to be allowed ashore because of the volume of new arrivals.

Migrants wearing face masks were seen lining up along the side of Border Force cutter Seeker.

Seeker is part of a scaled-up contingent of five Border Force vessels in operation yesterday, which Searcher and patrol boats Hunter, Speedwell and Eagle.

Leighton buzzed by a third quake

LEIGHTON Buzzard has been hit by an earthquake for the third time in two weeks.

The magnitude three tremor hit the Bedfordshire town at 8.32am yesterday, the British Geological Survey confirmed.

It was a second aftershock following the initial event on September 8, which was a magnitude 3.5 event.

Seismologist Glenn Ford said: “What we’re seeing here is a small aftershock from that earthquake.”

The first aftershock, measured at magnitude 2.1, hit on September 14.

BORIS IS NOT UP TO THE JOB!

A NEW LEADER
Labour

DRUBBING: Sir Keir speaks out

Starmer puts the boot in as he says Labour is ‘serious about winning’

SIR Keir Starmer lashed out at Boris Johnson’s “serial incompetence” over coronavirus and Brexit as he sought to position Labour as a credible alternative government.

The Labour leader made clear that he was breaking from the Jeremy Corbyn era, indicating that the party had deserved its drubbing at the 2019 general election.

But he stressed that “this is a party under new leadership” and urged voters who had deserted Labour to take a fresh look at it.

Sir Keir’s speech in Doncaster, delivered without an audience due to coronavirus, replaced what would have been his key party conference address.

He used it to contrast his approach and experience with that of the Prime Minister, hitting out at how the Government has handled coronavirus.

With one of the highest death rates in the world and on the threshold of one of the deepest recessions, he said, there was no doubt that “the Government’s incompetence is holding us back”.

“They couldn’t get kids back into school in June. They couldn’t work out a fair system to get exams marked,” he said.

“They couldn’t get protective equipment to care workers and they wasted millions of your money in the process.

“Their failure to protect care homes is a national scandal. They still can’t organise a testing regime that’s even serviceable, let alone world beating.”

He said Mr Johnson was “just not serious” and “he’s just not up to the job”.

He went on: “The Labour Party has lost four general elections in a row. The Tories have had as many election winners in five years as we’ve had in 75.”

It was now time to get “serious about winning”, Sir Keir, said as he gave himself the job of emulating Clement Attlee, Harold Wilson and Tony Blair.

NEW RULES: Boris in Commons

IT’S ENOUGH TO DRIVE YOU TO DRINK!

Pub bosses blast PM’s latest COVID-19 rules

HOSPITALITY leaders have condemned the Government’s plan to impose a 10pm curfew on pubs, restaurants and bars in England – describing the move as a “crushing blow” for the sector.

Prime Minister Boris Johnson announced the new restrictions – which also bans people from ordering at the bar – in a statement to the Commons yesterday.

By ROY DURRIDGE
news@sundaysport.co.uk

The measures come amid fears the UK could see 50,000 coronavirus cases a day by the middle of October with no Government action.

Kate Nicholls, boss of UKHospitality, led the criticism of the new restrictions.

She said: “These will come as yet another crushing blow for many hospitality businesses struggling to recover, so it’s crucial these new rules are applied with flexibility.

“A hard close time is bad for business and bad for controlling the virus – we need to allow time for people to disperse over a longer period.

“Table service has been widely adopted in some parts of the sector since reopening but it is not necessary across all businesses, such as coffee shops.

“It’s hard to understand how these measures are the solution to fighting this disease when the Government data shows that just five per cent of infections out of the home are related to hospitality. Where such restrictions have been put in place locally they have not cut infection rates, merely damaged business and cost jobs.”

She said that the Government needs to “recognise this will damage confidence even further and it is now inevitable that the sector will struggle long into 2021” and called for a support package.

She said: “We need to see an early signal that the VAT cut will be extended through to the end of 2021, that the business rates holiday will continue next year, and an enhanced employment support package specifically for hospitality.

“We agree with the Government that we are all in this together. Hospitality has played its part by investing in Covid-secure venues and reassuring their customers.

“Now, it’s time for Government to show its commitment to the sector and its recovery. Hundreds of thousands of livelihoods depend upon it.”

Yesterday in the Commons, Boris Johnson confirmed the 10pm closing time and said the new measures would stay in place for six months.

HOTEL GIANT WARNS OF 6,000 JOB CUTS

WHITBREAD, which owns the Premier Inn and Beefeater diners, has warned that 6,000 staff could lose their jobs.

The company blamed the cuts on a slump in hotel guest numbers since lockdown.

It comes as the government’s furlough scheme, which still pays 27,000 Whitbread staff, ends next month.

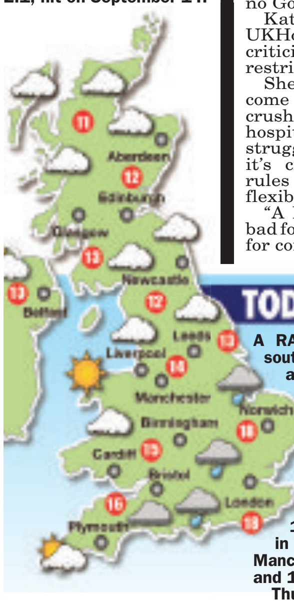
Meanwhile, pub chain Wetherspoon has warned its 1,000 staff who work at airport venues that almost half of them could lose their jobs because of the dramatic fall in travel and tourism.

The company told staff that up to 450 people could be made redundant.

Wetherspoon chief executive John Hutson said: “The decision is mainly a result of a downturn in trade in these pubs, linked with the large reduction in passenger numbers using the airports.”

He added that “no firm decisions have been made”.

The reduction in travellers and those sharing a meal out has also hurt Whitbread. The company said hotel stays in August had halved and diner numbers fell by more than a third, though said it had been helped by the Eat Out to Help Out scheme.



TODAY’S WEATHER

A RAIN band will move southeast across England and Wales, clearing southeast England by evening to leave brighter but cooler conditions with blustery showers in the northwest.

Temperatures of 18C in London, 15C in Cardiff, 14C in Manchester, 13C in Belfast and 12C in Edinburgh.

Thursday will be windy with showers or longer spells of rain for many.

Temperatures of 14C in London, 13C in Cardiff, 12C in Manchester, 11C in Belfast and 10C in Edinburgh.

One per cent of deaths due to COVID-19

CORONAVIRUS contributed to one per cent of all deaths in England and Wales in the second week of this month.

That’s among the lowest figures published by the Office for National Statistics since March when the pandemic took hold.

It’s feared this will rise following recent increases in cases and hospitalisations.

Deaths from all causes in England and Wales were higher than average in the week to 11 September.

This is likely to be because the August Bank Holiday delayed reporting, however.

The north-west of England had the most deaths from COVID-19.

The ONS counted registrations where “novel coronavirus” was mentioned on the death certificate.

Although coronavirus deaths remain fairly low, this week also marks the first time they have increased rather than decreased since the beginning of April.

Deaths hit their lowest point since mid-March in the week to September 4, with just 78 deaths certificates mentioning coronavirus as a factor.

TUI makes cuts after huge slump

TRAVEL giant TUI has made further cuts to winter capacity due to changing restrictions, as it reported an unprecedented 83 per cent slump in summer bookings.

The Anglo-German business said it has cut its fourth quarter programme from 30 per cent to just 25 per cent, with the upcoming winter holiday capacity recently reduced by around another fifth.

It has also switched to low-risk destinations, but said the last month has been hit by “continuous changes in travel advice by various governments.”

It added that holiday prices have slipped by 19 per cent.

Driving tests in bug plunge

JUST 6,200 driving tests were conducted between April and June due to the coronavirus pandemic, new figures show.

This is a 98 per cent reduction on the same quarter in 2019 when 393,400 tests were taken across Britain.

The Department for Transport data shows that the pass rate improved from 46 per cent to 55 per cent over the same period.

Driving tests across the UK were suspended for all candidates except key workers after the coronavirus lockdown in March.

They resumed on July 22 in England and on later dates in Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland.

COMMENTS: Fans had their say

By GRACE HOOPER

LOVE Island scorcher Maura Higgins has become the latest star to fall victim of the lurid curse of Daily Mail "below the line" online commentators.

The stunning 29-year-old featured in an article after posting a series of racy snaps of herself on Instagram over the weekend.

The blue-eyed brunette wowed her fans with photos of her wearing sexy white, see-through Ann Summers bra and knickers while pouting for the camera.

Many people praised the young lady for her poise, figure, clothing choice – and for simply allowing them to see her in a state of undress.

But for others on the septic website, it was an opportunity not to miss.

User Turk6969, from London, said bluntly: "Would ride her like a stolen bike."

And James Shepherd, also from London, wrote: "Oh my I'm getting turned on."

Prize for the most bizarre comment goes to PorkPieHead, from "Gammon Town", who felt the need to post: "Heard from a very reliable source that Maura is actually a front for the Irish Republican Army and is being used in the UK to gain support for Sinn Fin.

"Now I'm not sure for one second this is true, I personally don't believe it but it's food for thought."

To which All smoking mirrors, from Dublin, replied: "Absolutely ridiculous."

Sly Stallone's celebrity mum is dead at 98

CELEBRITY Big Brother star Jackie Stallone, mother of Hollywood actor Sylvester Stallone, has died at the age of 98.

Another son, the singer Frank Stallone, paid tribute to a "remarkable woman".

He wrote on social media: "It was hard not to like her, she was very eccentric and flamboyant person.

"Her mind was as sharp as a razor till the day she died. She never wore a mask a true revolutionary gal.

"My brother Sylvester took care of her like a Queen for all of her life."

Jackie was married three times and had three sons and a daughter, Toni D'Alto, who died in 2012.

The famous celebrity astrologer and women's wrestling promoter had a brief stint in the Celebrity Big Brother house in 2005.

She was evicted from the house following clashes with racing pundit John McCririck.

HOLLY'S DAYTIME TELLY FANNY BATTER SHOCKER!

SNIFFY: Holly has a laugh as Phil says a candle smells of intimate odours

THIS Morning* viewers saw presenters Holly Willoughby and Philip Schofield channel their inner Gwyneth Paltrows on live TV.

By COLIN HURST

news@sundaysport.co.uk

The pair were presenting a section of the show called Spin To Win, where contestants ring in to try to win cash and bonus prizes.

Paltrow famously launched a pricey candle last year from her Goop range that supposedly smells like her own vagina.

And Holly clearly had something along those lines in mind when she got a fit of the giggles halfway through the live quiz clip.

Smell

After a shopping bag of goodies was lowered from the studio ceiling, Holly said to Phil: "There's something in there that will be perfect for a new house."

"Is there?" asked Phil.

"Yes, the candle," said Holly.

"Everyone loves a candle in a new house, you know, to get rid of the smell of paint."

But Phil shot back: "I thought you were talking about thinners, to clean the brushes."

Then he grabbed the bag and said: "You've got the jigsaw, you've got the candle… just to prove it…" – as he smells the item, adding: "It smells of This Morning's studio… It smells of us."

Holly laughed as Phil repeated: "Of us."

Phil looked innocent as he asked: "What did I say?"

Holly, laughing again, replied: "It doesn't matter what I thought you said. It's fine, it's a love-smelling candle."

One viewer said: "Holly clearly thought Phil was suggesting the candle smelled of her fanny batter! As though he wouldn't know, being a gay.

"And I'm not sure that Holly's fanny batter is a suitable subject for daytime telly.

"That said, I like the thought of Holly's sweet, sweet fanny batter."

Emmerdale's Joe all set to dance on ice

EMMERDALE'S Joe Warren-Plant has been confirmed as the second star to sign up to Dancing On Ice.

The show's hosts Holly Willoughby and Phillip Schofield announced the news on This Morning with an interview with Joe, 18.

Joe, who plays Jacob Gallagher in the soap, is taking a six-month break from Emmerdale to work on his skating.

He is set to be judged by ice skating legends Jayne Torvill and Christopher Dean when the talent show returns in January.

Dancing On Ice teased the news earlier this week with a photo of Joe and three others.

Taking to the show's official social media channels today, bosses posted a picture of half of four celebrities from the neck down.

Musician and telly presenter Myleene Klass was the first celeb to be announced on the skating contest.

Myleene, 42, signed up to the series just weeks after getting engaged to the father of her one-year-old son Apollo, Simon Motson.

"I am appealing to anyone who may have been in the area at the time and witnessed any suspicious activity to please get in touch.

"I would also ask any motorists travelling along Waterloo Road around the time of the incident who may have captured anything relevant on dashcam footage to contact Dorset Police."

Scrotum op Chris in jizz documentary

FORMER Love Island star Chris Hughes is making a documentary about SPUNK!

Chris, 27, was gutted when older brother Ben was diagnosed with testicular cancer and later told of his fears he may be infertile.

Ben was later declared cancer-free. The siblings will star in BBC documentary Me, My Brother And Our Balls and Chris hopes viewers will walk away with a greater understanding of the subject.

He said: “I hope they’ll take away some education about male fertility, and that they can look after themselves in simple ways.”

Chris found fame after appearing on Love Island in 2017 and has dated Little Mix singer Jesy Nelson.

He was praised in 2018 for having a testicular exam live on This Morning and has had surgery for varicoceles, which affects the veins on the scrotum.

Camera, action! Here comes the new Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD’S unions have agreed pandemic protocols with major studios that will allow film and TV production to resume after six months of stagnant sets and extensive unemployment.

The deal includes mandatory and comprehensive use of personal protective gear and testing of cast and crew members, with a dedicated coronavirus supervisor to oversee it.

A “zone system” will strictly limit interactions between people on sets based on their job’s requirements.

Those who must deal with more people will be tested more frequently and will have more strict protective equipment and spacing requirements.

Actors will be tested especially often, because their on-camera work won’t allow for many protective measures.

CATCH A PERVERT IN YOUR FAMILY BUISNESS BATHROOM WITH A F KIN DILDO I'M NOT SORRY F K THIS POS

By COLIN HURST news@sundaysport.co.uk

KICKBOXER Joe Schilling went nuts when he found a man in the toilet of his gym – using a DILDO on himself.

Videos of the battering by MMA star Schilling, 36, have been shared online.

In them, the man – who Schilling says is homeless – is "removed" from the Los Angeles gym.

Schilling proceeds to follow him, throwing what appears to be the man's possessions at him.

He then kicks the man twice and the camera catches what is clearly a big green sex toy on the ground.

The video of Schilling's altercation with the man was captioned: "Catch a pervert in your family business bathroom with a fkin' dildo…I'm not sorry. Fk this POS."

It was shared via Instagram Stories and the YouTube channel MMA WORLD.

A pal said: "Joe was absolutely furious, as anyone would be.

"He's always concerned for the wellbeing of his gym users and this was so wrong it was off the scale."

Cops hunt suspected churchyard tosser

POLICE were called after a naked man was spotted sitting on a bench in a churchyard.

The man was seen a short time later with his clothes on – but it is believed he may have been performing a lewd act under his clothing.

Now police have released an image of a man they would like to speak to after his actions were witnessed by a man in his 40s and his teenage daughter.

The incident took place in the yard of St James' Church, Bournemouth, just after 3pm on Saturday.

PC Dave Carmichael, of Bournemouth police, said: "This must have been a distressing incident for the witnesses.

"We have obtained a photo of a man we would like to speak to as part of our investigation."

TITS AND ARTS: Spencer Tunick

WE don't know much about art here at Sport HQ but we do know what we like – boobs, and lots of them!

Which is why we're big fans of artist Spencer Tunick who regularly gets women to strip off en masse for his projects.

His most recent piece saw more than 200 people taking part in the nudity-obsessed Yank's gathering at London's Alexandra Palace venue in the early hours of Saturday morning.

US photographer Tunick said creating the eye-catching piece was "liberating and life-affirming" and all about "breaking down barriers".

He said: "The reality of masses of people being close together – shoulder to shoulder, skin touching skin – may be something of the past for now, but still the desire is there for that natural connectivity, perhaps more so now than ever."

Powerful

His latest piece even had a powerful message – all the people taking part wore face masks.

Entitled 'Everyone Together', the piece – supported by Sky Arts – is thought to be the UK's first major collective piece of artwork during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Organisers said the event was compliant with current guidelines, including temperature checks.

Today we celebrate Spencer's past mass naked gatherings from all around the world.

Stepmum wins appeal over incest charges

A STEPMOTHER has been cleared of wrongdoing after being accused of participating in sex acts with her teenage stepson.

The woman was accused of encouraging her stepson to perform oral sex on her, including an act called the 'alphabet game' over a two-year period.

At the time she was said to be 25 and 26, while the boy was only around 14.

A trial by judge found there was insufficient evidence to prove the woman, from Melbourne, Australia, was guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.

She had been charged with two counts of gross indecency with a person under the age of 16 and two counts of incest between 1985 and 1987.

This included allegations she had performed oral sex on the boy and that they had penetrative sex.

She had twice been convicted over the charges after separate trials by jury, but the charges were thrown out after an appeal.

Popcorn market has gone... pop!

THE popcorn market may have popped.

With cinemas shut down during the coronavirus pandemic, people are eating less movie snacks.

This has left farmers who supply cinemas – and other venues – with a massive surplus of unsold food.

Popcorn farmers who typically sell to cinemas, bars, concert halls and sporting events are struggling amid the pandemic.

While microwave popcorn brands have reportedly seen sales surge, many farmers who provide corn to cinemas and other venues don't have the equipment or infrastructure to switch their sales models.

ASS-AULT WEAPON!

Crim hid a gun – in his BACKSIDE

By JIM BROWN news@sundaysport.co.uk

A MAN was found to have a loaded pistol in his arse cheeks during a jail strip-search.

Justin Savoie, 24, pleaded guilty after his arrest late last year at a residence in Golden Meadow, near New Orleans.

Cops confronted Savoie and a female friend after seeing suspicious activity at the woman's home.

During a pat-down of Savoie, officers found a concealed handgun, marijuana, and drug paraphernalia.

Savoie was arrested and during the intake process the strip-search revealed he was in possession of another firearm – a .25 calibre Titan pistol concealed between his buttocks.

Loaded

The handgun, which has a 2.5ins barrel and measures 4.375 inches long, was loaded.

He's now barred from owning or possessing firearms and also "the excessive use of alcohol and the illegal use of drugs".

HIDDEN: Savoie (above) had gun hidden in arse

He also received a five-year suspended sentence during a District Court sentencing, was placed on three years' probation and ordered to serve 90 days in jail.

If he violates terms of his probation, he risks having to serve all or part of five years in state prison.

A police source said: "Whoever thought a .25 calibre pistol could be an ass-ault weapon?!"

Balloons explode during PM's party

AS many as 12 people were hurt when fireworks ignited hydrogen-filled balloons, causing a massive explosion during a birthday celebration for India's prime minister.

Around 100 balloons burst into flames during a gathering in Chennai on Friday for Narenda Modi, who turned 70 last week.

A huge explosion erupted after a series of firecrackers went off nearby, sending sparks into a bunch of balloons and causing them to ignite instantly.

Dozens of people were standing beneath the balloons when they went up in a spectacular fireball.

The organisers, who were from Modi's political party, were planning to release the balloons into the air but did not get permission from police in advance of the display.

CAR PURSUIT METH HEAD NEEDED POO

A WOMAN told police that she had to "poop so bad" before taking off and leading them on a high-speed chase.

Emily Owings, 28, was pulled over when a cop noticed that she wasn't wearing a seatbelt.

She didn't have her insurance or any ID except for a medical marijuana card, and the cop determined that her driver's licence had been revoked.

When the cop said he was going to check for outstanding warrants, the woman tearfully told the officer, "But I have to poop so bad".

She added: "It's my birthday. It's my fking birthday. Why won't you just let me go?"

When the cop refuses, she pleads: "But can I please go home and go poop?"

When that didn't work she yelled: "Fk you guys!" and sped off, leading police on a pursuit for miles in a 70mph chase through Enid, Oklahoma.

Owings allegedly went through several red light before she ultimately stopped and surrendered to cops, police said.

But even as Owings (left) was escorted into the squad vehicle she asked: "Can I poop in your car, man?"

Police found meth in her car, charged her with all sorts and slung her in the lock-up pending trial.

Drug nut in 'Hazzardous' bridge leap

A DAREDEVIL launched his car over a rising drawbridge "Dukes of Hazzard" style while he was high on laughing gas.

Miguel Gomez (above), 26, was busted for pulling the wild stunt on a city centre bridge.

Police said Gomez was waiting to cross just as it was opening up, stepped on the pedal and accelerated the car through the security gate and into the air to the other side.

"It was actually like the Dukes of Hazzard but he made it across," said a police officer, comparing the scene to the 1970s television show in which a Dodge Charger would often take flying leaps to escape from the law.

The operator of the the Fort Street bridge in Detroit, Michigan, said: "I looked, I said, 'No he ain't', then over he went, blew out all four of his tyres, and then he crashed into the other gate."

Gomez survived, but wrecked his car, which contained cans of nitrous oxide, and now faces five years in jail.

'Put me in jail' plea of police station stripper

A MAN who walked into a police station, stripped naked and asked to be put in jail, got his wish when he was sentenced to a month behind bars.

The 30-year-old man, who can't be named for legal reasons, appeared in court via video-link on a charge of indecent exposure.

He was arrested after he walked into the cop shop took off his clothes and refused to put them back on.

His defence lawyer said the man's actions were a reaction to personal trauma he recently experienced.

He said there was no indication of underlying mental health problems.

The lawyer added: "He understands what is happening. I think he is just struggling."

The defendant pleaded guilty in Christchurch, New Zealand.

Brit hunk's co-stars in new mini-series are TOPLESS

HOLLYWOOD heart-throb Jude Law is back on our screens this week in new Sky Atlantic drama The Third Way.

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

Jude, 47 is the star of this mysterious mini-series set over three actual seasons – summer, autumn and winter.

The good news is that the show, which is screened on Tuesday nights at 9pm, has some lovely lady co-stars who are unafraid of flashing flesh.

Katherine Waterston, 40, first peeled off for 2007's The Babysitters before going nude in the 2014 hit Inherent Vice.

Emily Watson, 53, burst onto the acting scene in 1996's Breaking the Waves, where her full-frontal nakedness shot her into the bigtime.

And Naomie Harris, 44 – Moneypenny opposite Daniel Craig's James Bond – stripped for a sexy shower scene in 2006's Miami Vice, alongside Jamie Foxx.

HILLARY CLINTON UNI BANS RIMMING!

HILLARY Clinton's former university has banned the licking of ANUSES in a bid to halt the spread of coronavirus.

Yale University published a comprehensive guide for how to have sex in the pandemic that it includes descriptions of the sex acts thought to spread the virus.

Yale's health department circulated a Safer Sex During COVID-19 document that advises students to limit sexual interactions by masturbating and to "liven up" their sex lives by wearing masks.

The guidelines also offer tips on how to properly clean sex toys before and after use, and ask students to avoid "rimming, or any sexual activity that involves putting your mouth on the anus."

Other tips include selective kissing, using condoms, washing hands before and after sex, and using the internet for sexual exchanges.

It advises: "Consensual virtual connections over the phone or on web platforms can be ways to interact socially and sexually without the exchange of fluids. Use this time to liven up your sex life while staying safe!"

Under the Spice It Up subhead, the guidelines say heavy breathing can spread the virus and suggest students wear masks in bed to prevent infection.

It states: "Though wearing a mask while having sex might not be your thing, it is a good way to add a layer of protection, especially as heavy breathing can spread the virus further."

Yale is also encouraging students to partake in cybersex and masturbation, saying that "you are your safest sex partner."

According to a Frontiers in Psychiatry study, however, cybersex sometimes "serves as another outlet for gratification that feeds a previous problem," especially for those addicted to drugs and alcohol. College students abuse drugs at some of the highest rates in the United States.

Yale is also the former university of George W. Bush, his dad George Bush, Meryl Streep and Jodie Foster.

AS fashion trends go, it has to be one of the stranger ones...

Reality TV stars and Instagram “influencers” are wearing jeans that are TOO BIG – in a bizarre bid to look skinnier!

TV babes Molly May Hague, Zara McDermott and Chloe Ferry are among those teaming oversized baggy jeans with tummy-skimming crop tops – a combo that accentuates a more slender waistline.

Stunnas are going up a size or borrowing their fella’s larger jeans for the fashion fad.

Love Island star Molly-Mae Hague jetted off to Italy and made sure she had her jeans packed in her suitcase.

Posing in front of Milan’s Duomo, the pretty blonde appeared to be holding up her jeans which she teamed with a tight white crop top.

But here at Midweek Sport, we’re of the opinion that ladies look great in denim – especially if it fits their killer curves.

And even better, if they forget to wear any tops with their jeans!

One denim fan said: “You ain’t looking at their waists when you’re goggling at their boobs! Phwoar!”

NO ESCAPE COSTA KILLER

BEATEN AND STABBED: Tragic mum Sarah Thomas

DAVID Baxendale was a seriously desperate man.

He'd murdered a woman 24 hours earlier and knew the police would be on his tail.

His face was all over the media. He was one of Britain's most wanted men.

So Baxendale bought a razor and slipped into the public toilets at the Gunwharf Quays shopping centre.

By KOURTNEY KENNEDY
news@sundaysport.co.uk

He shaved his head and took another look at the photo in his brother's passport, which he'd stolen.

Likeness

Maybe the likeness was good enough.

It was.

Later that day, David Baxendale booked a one-way ferry ticket from Portsmouth to St Malo in France.

He took a last look back at Britain as the ship sailed into the Channel.

He knew he'd never be able to go back.

Once in France, he fled south and crossed the Pyrenees into Spain.

He knew the country well. In 2001 he was jailed there for murdering a man whom he'd stabbed 14 times while under the influence of drink and drugs.

He was deported back to the UK in June 2008 and released from prison in September 2009, to be placed under the care of the Surrey Probation Service.

Just eight months later, the 40-year-old killed again.

This time his victim was Sarah Thomas, 38 – a woman he'd met only hours before.

Baxendale brutally stabbed the mother-of-three to death in her flat in Nutfield, Surrey.

He subjected her to a ferocious attack which left her with multiple injuries, including a fatal knife wound to the neck.

He knew that if the authorities caught him, he'd be locked up for good.

So he started running.

Baxendale's luck ran out after just a few weeks, in Fuengirola near Marbella.

He'd been drinking with a holidaymaker who later saw a media report about Sarah's murder and the hunt for her killer.

Convict

Horrified, the tourist realised that he'd been drinking with him and called the cops.

Spanish cops arrested Baxendale and quickly extradited him back to Britain.

At the end of a three-week trial at Guildford Crown Court in March 2011, jurors took just three hours to unanimously convict Baxendale of murder.

Judge Christopher Critchlow immediately handed down a whole life jail term, meaning the killer will never be eligible for parole.

Sentencing Baxendale, Judge Critchlow said: "This was a particularly horrifying murder.

"She was punched repeatedly by your fists. Then you hit her with a bottle before finally stabbing her in the neck.

"She was completely defenceless at your hands.

"You have shown no remorse during this trial, during which you sought to pin the blame on her boyfriend.

"You are a violent and dangerous person."

The court heard that, at the time of her death, unemployed Sarah – who struggled with substance abuse issues

MURDER SCENE: Flats where Sarah was killed so savagely

FREED...TO KILL AGAIN

IN FRIDAY'S

FOR THE

MERCILESS: Baxendale slaughtered Sarah Thomas after only knowing her for a matter of hours

– was living in at the 'Spinning Wheel' flats.

On the afternoon of May 10, 2010, she met Baxendale at a mutual friend's flat in Redhill. The pair got a taxi back to hers at around 5pm.

Sarah's boyfriend, David Bowden, told the court he tried to call her as he was concerned for her safety.

By the time he got to the flat he found her on the living room floor covered in blood.

Spotted

Although emergency services arrived shortly after, they were unable to revive her and Sarah died at the scene.

Baxendale, who had been drinking with friends in Memorial Park, Redhill, during the day was spotted running from the building.

Witnesses saw him in the Nutfield area over the next hour-and-a-half.

A knife, which was found to have both Baxendale's and Sarah's blood on it, was later discovered near a tree, while a plastic bag containing his blood-stained jacket was found under a bench in a garden.

Baxendale ran through a number of fields and paths before eventually catching a taxi to his home in Walton-on-the-Hill.

A bag hidden in a hedge in a nearby lane was later found to contain a T-shirt and jeans with Baxendale's DNA on them, along with a pair of trainers stained with Sarah's blood.

His fingerprints were also found in Sarah's blood by the window of her flat and on the neck of a bottle.

The day after the murder, with the help of his brother's passport, he fled the country.

The court heard that he had a number of previous convictions for violence involving knives and were told about the murder he'd committed in Spain in 2001.

They also heard that, just five days before Sarah Thomas's murder, Baxendale had threatened to kill another woman who he had met while attending probation requirements and who had stopped returning his calls.

Det Ch Insp Steve Hayes, who led the investigation, said: "This was a truly tragic case.

Ferocity

"Sarah Thomas was the victim of a sustained and savage attack in her own home at the hands of a man she'd only met that afternoon.

"The number of injuries she suffered and the ferocity used was truly shocking.

"David Baxendale already had a history of offences involving knives spanning the last 20 years, including a previous conviction for murder.

"He is clearly an extremely dangerous and callous man whose propensity for violence knows no bounds.

"He has not shown a shred of remorse for this horrific crime and instead tried to flee the country in a bid to evade capture.

"Our thoughts and sympathies remain with the family and friends of Sarah Thomas, particularly her two eldest sons.

"I hope today has brought them some justice and closure for what happened to her."

But, even though bang to rights with two murders under his bloodstained belt, Baxendale still tried to wriggle off the hook.

In 2012, he launched appeals against his conviction and sentence.

His lawyers argued that the way the trial judge dealt with the evidence of Baxendale's previous convictions rendered his latest guilty verdict unsafe.

But three senior Court of Appeals judges upheld both conviction and sentence.

Giving the appeal judgment, Lord Justice Gross said the trial judge could have dealt with the evidence in a better way, but that it didn't mean the conviction was unsafe.

He also rejected Baxendale's plea for a less severe sentence.

Rejected

Two years later he was back at the appeal court, arguing that his 2001 conviction for the killing in Spain should not have been brought up at his trial for murdering Sarah.

His barrister this time argued that Baxendale's legal team had been wrong not to fight the prosecution application to include the previous conviction.

Again, the appeal was rejected and Baxendale's full-life term confirmed, leaving him rotting in the jail cell he still sits.

WEEKEND Sport THE MOST DANGEROUS MAN IN PRISON

CANNIBAL PERVERT CAGED FOR 40 YEARS

GRISLY PLAN: Barter

Monster plotted to devour girl, 13

A CANNIBAL pervert who plotted to EAT a teenage girl has been jailed for 40 years.

Alexander Nathan Barter, 23, posted an ad on a site on the Dark Web stating: "I'd like to try necrophilia and cannibalism, and see how it feels to take a life."

He added: "If you'd be willing to let me kill you, are in the US (preferably in the south) and can travel by car, contact me."

By GRACE HOOPER
news@sundaysport.co.uk

But an undercover cop saw the advert and responded, pretending to be the dad of a 13-year-old girl.

In October 2018, Barter and the officer exchanged a series of messages that included Barter's repeated interest in sexually assaulting, killing, and eating the teenager.

Evidence

Barter provided the undercover cop with instructions to travel from Florida to Shelby Co, Texas, what to tell the child in order to get her to agree to travel, and how to conceal evidence of their crime.

On October 19, 2018, Barter arrived at the designated meet site in Joaquin, Texas with a knife, bag, phone, and a tablet.

Barter pleaded guilty last year to attempted coercion and enticement of a minor and distribution of illegal pornography.

He has since been sentenced to 480 months in prison.

Barter was also told to submit to a lifetime of supervised release after his prison term.

His counsel requested that the Court impose a total prison term of 20 years, after the Government requested a sentence of 40 years' imprisonment.

Attorney Stephen J. Cox said: "As this chilling case clearly demonstrates, online talk is not always just talk. The constant vigilance of our law enforcement partners has stopped an evildoer bringing his grisly plan to fruition."

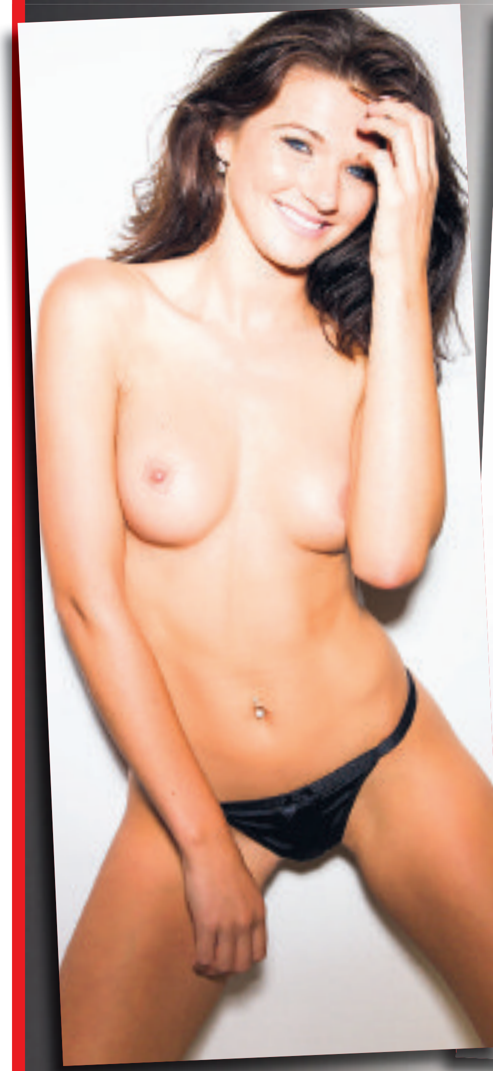
#HOT'N'HORNY



NAUGHTY Nickie Ann has explained the time kinky role-play led to a 24-hour sex marathon – and a BROKEN bed!

Blackpool-born Nickie was lifting the lid on her dirtiest ever weekend.

And she said it all began when her fella booked them into a posh hotel room in Manchester.

Nickie, 26, said they both pretended to be complete strangers – going from chatting in a bar to heading back to their hotel suite for a lust-fuelled "one-night stand".

The 32E stunna confessed: "I thought the whole thing was going to be embarrassing and a bit cringe-worthy, to be honest.

"But trying role-play for the first time was a total revelation.

"I had the best sex of my life. It was like we'd just met, but still knew each other intimately in the bedroom.

"We locked the doors of the hotel room and stayed under the duvet for 24 hours.

"I lost count of the amount of times I orgasmed – and we even broke the bed!"

JUSTIN DUNN'S ROOM 101

WHAT'S ANNOYING HIM THIS WEEK?

GREAT – so we're going back into lockdown.

This will be the same lockdown that we had at the beginning of these last six months.

Except this time, we'll be forced to wear face masks that we were told we definitely WOULDN'T need to do back then.

We can still go to the pub, though.

And the supermarket.

And if you wouldn't mind eating out to help protect the hospitality industry, that would be fab, too.

Just don't go out with anyone you'd like to catch up with.

No, you can only go galivanting with someone you've just spent six entire sodding months locked up with while wondering how to kill them.

No room for morons

FOOTBALL tells us there is "no room for racism".

Too right.

I will not be taking the knee any time soon, but the sentiment is good enough for me.

Because it is really quite easy not to be a moron.

But while we're at it, there are a few other things there should be no room for.

Gangs of kids running around London and our other inner cities stabbing each other up.

The grooming rape monsters who prowl around places in their distinctly dodgy private hire cabs.

Mutilated

Young girls being sent "on holiday" to see relatives who then return them to Britain with their genitals mutilated for life.

Girls being sent "on holiday" who don't ever come back here but who do find themselves suddenly married to a man they've never met – sometimes a much older man, too.

Religions that support chucking people off the top of buildings for the apparent crime of being gay.

Religions that for centuries knowingly hide their paedophiles behind their cassocks and their God.

And they're just the really bad ones.

We all know of many more things there should be "no room" for.

Cyclists riding on the pavements – and I don't even care if they're just kids.

Gone.

Almond milk.

Gone.

The people who pack pairs of scissors into impenetrable vacuum packs.

Definitely gone.

And the man – it had to be a man – who thought making black midget gems taste like syrupy ant sick.

Gone.

Pineapple on pizzas.

Out you go, too.

And you, there, with the ridiculous little yappy dog that you think everyone else simply adores.

Trust me – they do not.

Go on… out.

Anyone who wants to talk to you about something that you've experienced and they haven't, yet they still somehow think they know better about it anyway.

Be off.

Birds, especially the bloody 5am ones.

People who enter a sweet shop and after perusing the array of chocolate bars and other sugary delights still somehow opt for a ruddy Kit Kat.

Tea breath.

Old people stood still in narrow supermarket aisles.

Needing a wee on a toiletless train.

Smelling old wee when you walk through an alley.

99% of the entrants on Dragon's Den.

And my latest bugbear – the seemingly non-stop sound of reversing HGVs bleeping around my cul-de-sac.

Surmountable problems on their own, yes, but when taken in the realm, very possibly the reason why so many us eventually croak from heart attacks.

NEW Yorkers are going mad for COCK – and it's driving people clucking insane!

Since January, the city council has logged 315 calls about "illegal animals" kept as pets – and more than half of those have been for cock-a-doodle-doers.

Roosters led the flock of complaints with 164, followed by gripes over farm animals (54). Complainers also moaned about ferrets, iguanas, snakes – and three monkeys.

Overall, exotic animal complaints this year were up 77 per cent – possibly because more COVID-concerned New Yorkers were home to hear annoying animals sounds, rather than being at work.

The Queens area ruled the roost when it came to animal moans with 89, followed by Brooklyn (77), The Bronx (69) and Staten Island (57).

Manhattan denizens complained of illegal pets just 23 times.

The city health code prohibits the owning of of animals, from zebras to elephants to bats.

Husband scythes open wife to see if baby is a boy

A PREGNANT woman whose belly was allegedly cut open with a sickle by her husband has given birth to a stillborn boy.

The woman's family has alleged that the man attacked her because he wanted to check the baby's gender.

They say the couple have five daughters and the man has been putting pressure on his wife to deliver a son.

The man, who has been arrested, has denied intentionally hurting his wife, saying instead that it was an accident.

The incident took place in Badaun district in Uttar Pradesh, India's most populous state, in the north of the country.

Police said that the injured wife was in a stable condition in a hospital in the capital, Delhi, and that her husband had been arrested.

BANGED UP: Brittany von Stein

A SINGING teacher who wanked off a teen pupil during a private lesson apologised in court for making the lad "a victim".

Brittany von Stein, 27, was sentenced to 90 days in jail and an undetermined time on probation for the relationship with the student.

After her release, she will spend at least 10 years – and possibly the rest of her life – on probation.

She must also serve 500 hours public service.

By BRAD CHADWICK
news@sundaysport.co.uk

Von Stein – a teacher at Basalt High School in Colorado, pleaded guilty in July to one count of sexual assault on a child by one in a position of trust. Four more counts of sexual assault on a child were dismissed.

The sexual encounters with a 17-year-old pupil from her school took place at her apartment.

Von Stein kissed the lad during a singing lesson and unzipped his flies and pulled out his penis which she furiously masturbated him until he ejaculated.

Steel-hard

She then had full sex with the teen, inserting his steel-hard cock into the teacher's moist, giving vagina.

The pair had sex three times on separate occasions – with the lad ejaculating his semen each time.

While the age of consent on Colorado is 17, sex between teachers and students is forbidden.

Von Stein spoke and offered an apology during the hearing and said that she accepted full responsibility without excuses, adding: "As a result of my conduct, I created a victim.

"He deserved to have a normal junior and senior year in high school and I took that away from him.

"I'm ashamed, I'm embarrassed and I apologise."

Sentencing her, district Judge James Boyd said: "This is the kind of case, because of its seriousness, that one could view the sentence as a close call – the choice between probation and prison.

"I mention that only to emphasise that you need to very careful.

"This is a very long probation and you need to be very careful that you follow all of its requirements.

"If for some reason you would have to come back before the court, the outcome might be very, very different."

The judge also ruled von Stein must register as a sex offender and undergo therapy.

You'll catch your death, Ashley!

DID Ashley Greene's nan never tell her standing in the water fully-clothed is the best way to catch a chill?

The 33-year-old Twilight actress was also probably never warned that water makes your togs go see-through, either.

Ashley gave fans a superb view of her gorgeous nips in this snap, which she shared on social media.

Bless you, love!

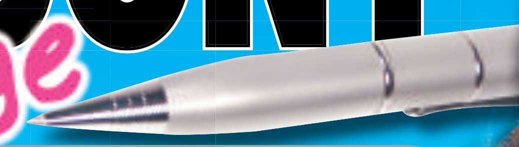
THE WORLD FAMOUS AGONY Page



Dear Ashleigh,

AS a guy in his mid-20s, is it wrong for me to want to use a dildo every time I have sex?

I don't have a regular girlfriend, so my sex life always consists of one-night stands.

I happened to sleep with one girl a few times and she thought it was weird that on each occasion I brought out a huge, pink dildo and asked her to penetrate me with it.

The third time she got dressed and left and said I was in the closet and needed to come out.

I am definitely not gay – I have never had feelings for men, but I just seem to get aroused better this way.

Am I weird?

Anon, Cambridge

Ashleigh says…

CERTAINLY not – lots of straight men take great pleasure from shoving things up their bums.

Dear Ashleigh,

I'M a 19-year-old student who has just moved away from home to go to university.

Until I moved away I was having a fantastic time partying and was banging this lass whose dad owns a big boozer.

Last month we went back there after a club. It was about 2am and we went through to the pool room.

We decided to have a game and every ball we potted meant the other had to take off an item of clothing.

Before long, she was wearing just a pair of hold-up stockings, and the next ball I potted, I challenged her to lay back on the table and spread her legs.

She did and started frigging herself, and just before she came I got my dick out and clambered above her, putting my knob in her gob.

We both came and she swallowed the lot and the green baize cloth only had a few damp patches from her juices.

But last week she asked me to leave college to help her and her dad run the pub.

I'm tempted but know that getting an education means a lot to my parents, who never got the chance.

What should I do?

CB, Staffs

Ashleigh says…

TRY it part-time. You'll earn some cash and have more chances to shag her.

Dear Ashleigh,

I'M a married working mum, aged 37, and a few weeks ago I took a day off work because we were having a bedroom carpet fitted at home.

When the fitter arrived he turned out to be a gorgeous lad in his early 20s.

We began chatting and he told he was a part-time stripper nicknamed 'King Dong'.

And I could see why – his cock was bulging through the front of his tight shorts.

I couldn't take my eyes off it and he noticed the look of amazement in my eyes. Then, in a flash, he'd dropped his pants and there it was in all its glory.

Next thing I know, 15 years of being totally faithful went out the window as I sank to my knees and I proceeded to wank and suck that monster dick like my life depended on it.

I was nearly gagging at one point as I deep-throated him, but he somehow managed to push it deeper.

When he shot his load it was like swallowing a pint of milk. Then we rolled around on the bare boards and he gave me the best fking of my life.

Now I can't get this young stallion out of my mind.

What should I do?

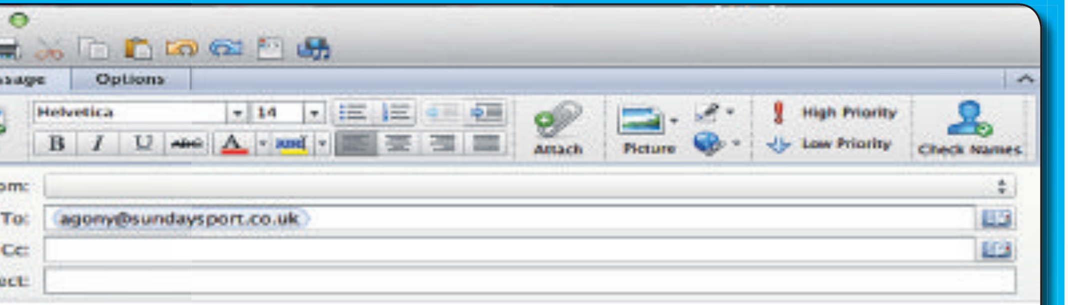
LR, North London

Ashleigh says…

CHECK out your local pubs and clubs for male strippers.

AGONY IS BROUGHT TO YOU IN ASSOCIATION

WELCOME to the World famous Sport Agony page! No other newspaper's agony aunts can offer the level of advice – or experience – than our own Agony Angels! This week ASHLEIGH GEE has been reading through your letters. And here's her advice for you...



I love slipping one in after an oily massage

Dear Ashleigh,

I WORK in a pretty menial job and life's a struggle.

It has got so bad recently that after a few years off looking after the kids, the wife said she'd get a job to make ends meet.

After scanning online job sites for work, and attending a few interviews, my wife announced she'd got a job at a supermarket.

Life became great – every week my wife piled in with bags full of shopping – and more cash.

Then I bumped into one of her pals who leered: "How's she doing at the massage parlour?"

Well, I couldn't believe it, but I confronted the wife and she admitted it.

Oral

I was ashamed, hurt and worried but I calmed down when she said she was earning up to £200 a night and was now able to buy all the things we'd denied ourselves before.

Then she told me of some of the services she provided.

She said she gave only hand relief and oral and never offered full sex.

After hearing the sex menu, I found myself strangely turned on.

I pulled her onto my knee as we sat on the sofa and what followed was absolutely amazing.

We slowly undressed each other, button by button, and I pulled up her jumper to kiss her 34Cs.

Then we stood up and took off the rest of our kit.

She told me to lie on my stomach on the carpet then she pulled out a bottle of oil and began rubbing my back and legs.

My dick was throbbing, so she rolled me onto my back and mounted me.

I was in heaven as I thrust away until she screamed as I brought her to orgasm.

We have sessions like this regularly now, but I still get jealous when she's out at work.

Do you think I should just try to get another, better job, so she can stay at home and service just me?

SD, West Mids

Ashleigh says...

NO – she clearly loves her new job as much as she loves you.

Dear Ashleigh,

I'VE just had sex with my boyfriend of three months for the first time.

Although we'd done plenty of other things before, I didn't realise how small his dick was until it was inside me.

He is great with his mouth and his hands, but when it came down to actual penetration I couldn't feel a thing.

Of course, I moaned and groaned as if I was having a great time – but the truth is I could have fallen asleep.

I am really keen on this guy and don't want to lose him, so is there anything I can buy to make him bigger?

Carrie, Brighton

Ashleigh says...

No. Get used to it or get rid!

Dear Ashleigh,

I WOKE this morning with a raging hard-on and had a quick one off the wrist, spurting all over the missus as she lay sleeping beside me.

It's not something I normally do, but despite the wank, my erection stayed.

The wife wouldn't let me shag her and my stonker went down later but I'm certain this would have been our best-ever bonk.

Should I trade her in for a new and younger model?

KM, Dorset

Ashleigh says...

NO, just be a bit more careful where you're shooting your jizz and I'm sure she'll let you have a leg-over again soon.

Dear Ashleigh,

I'M a 34-year-old roofer with a lovely girlfriend who I plan to marry some time next year.

The other week I was called out by a pal of mine to help him with a loft conversion.

Anyway, me and my pal got going on the job and started clearing out the loft.

There were loads of boxes of photo albums and I thought there was no harm in having a flick through.

The first was of wedding snaps but in the second there were loads of old Polaroid pictures of the lady of the house in explicit PORN poses!

In the next album there were more photos of the woman being serviced by different guys.

At the end of the day, when we were getting ready to go, the woman turned up at the house wearing a tiny revealing dress.

I couldn't help but think of her with her legs spread like in the photos.

My pal had to get off but I stayed on, using the excuse of measuring up.

Then she said: "I'd like to measure you up!"

As she said it she slipped out of the dress – she had nothing on underneath and pretty soon I was pumping away at her.

Just before I was about to come, she pushed me off, grabbed a camera and took a pic of me with a stiff cock and spunking off.

Then her hubby walked in and said he'd been watching the action and wondered if my fiancée would like to see the photo!

Now they are insisting I take part in a filmed orgy with them, but I don't want to be blackmailed like this.

What should I do?

PK, South Yorks

Ashleigh says...

CALL their bluff – tell them to go and fk themselves, not you!

‘I’m sucking his cock eagerly while someone is going down on me!’

#MY SEX FANTASY

…WITH ROXY TAGGART, 28 34DD-24-34 FROM YORK

IN my wildest fantasy I turn up at a sex club and straight away I put on a blindfold while a friend leads me in.

I’m quickly stripped totally naked and strapped to a chair and I have no idea what I’m letting myself in for.

Fingers

Strangers come up to me and start caressing me. I can feel multiple hands all over my body – on my boobs and across my thighs.

Fingers slide in and out of my pussy and I’m getting wetter and begging for more.

Next thing I know there is a hard cock in my mouth and I’m sucking away eagerly, while someone else is going down on me and another is licking my nipples.

By now I’ve lost all track of how many hands are groping me.

My legs are spread apart and a man whose face I can’t see enters me with his dick.

Then, from a different direction, I have another cock eased into my mouth and a new person sticks something large into my pussy.

This happens over and over while people are calling me a naughty slut.

I don’t know if I would ever have the guts to do this in real life but it would be an amazing turn on to go to a club where anything goes and I can really lose my inhibitions!

#HOT ’N’ HORNY

lana PARKER

TOPLESS beauty Lana Parker wants to spend her weekend shooting a homemade SEX TAPE.

The blonde bombshell certainly has all the right assets to make a red-hot porn flick.

And she showed off her killer curves in this new photo shoot.

Peeling off her clothes and posing up a storm, Lana revealed a do-it-yourself sex tape is at the top of her bucket list.

She said: “I’ve never made one, but it’s on my list of things to do before I die.

“I think it would be really fun and naughty to film myself and a gorgeous guy having sex.

“Then we could watch it back together… and do it all over again!”

IT'S finally time to say goodbye to the creepy Crawleys of Downton Abbey and hello to the horny hotties of buxom Bottomley Manor!

For all you red-blooded fellas who love your porn but are bored to tears by dull Downton Abbey this is your lucky day.

Released last week, the UK's most highly anticipated adult movie is available exclusively through the Sport's adult partner Private Shops and, for a limited time they're offering readers another £5 OFF the already low, low price.

Down On Abby is a big budget, full length adult masterpiece starring porn legend Ben Dover and a cast of the hottest adult stars around. It will transport you to Bottomley Manor, home to the Lord Grabhem (played by Ben Dover), his wife (and 2014 AVN nominee) Jasmine Jae, and their two young promiscuous step-daughters, Abby and Fanny.

The Grabhems have invited the Stiffies to dinner and their staff, led by butler Smallc and footman Master Bates, hurriedly prepare to receive their honoured guests.

But during preparations some members of staff have their own ideas of how to make the night go with a bang! As dinner approaches it seems everyone's got more than fancy nosh on their minds. Mind you, there is plenty of noshing as well as lots of other filth that will even cause a crease in Carson's keks.

We see plenty of R18 DVDs at the Sport but this one is really something special and one you MUST not miss!

This future classic stars Ava Dalush as Missy, Cathy Heaven as Lucy, Emma Leigh as Betty, Jasmine Jae as Lady Wanda Grabhem, Jasmine James as Fanny Grabhem, Jess West as Lady Stiffie, Lexi Lowe as Abby Grabhem, Ben Dover as Lord Will Grabhem, Big Bad Dave as Smithers and Clarke Kent as Master Bates.

PLUMBER Colin Jarvis wrote in begging for a topless photo of his favourite glamour girl Janine McKee.

Colin, 38, from Stockton-on-Tees, fancies the pants off Janine, 30, from Glasgow, and loved ogling her photos in the Sport.

In his letter, Colin wrote: "Janine is my favourite Sport girl. She's beautiful and she's got a real handful with her 32D boobs."

Well, here you go Colin, enjoy!

PAMELA HOKSH

KINKY Pamela Hoksh caught the eye of 29-year-old Michael Hall, from Walsall, who emailed us to request a sexy snap of the Budapest-born blonde.

Waiter Michael works in a restaurant and dreams of the day 26-year-old Pamela walks in to have a bite to eat.

Michael said that Pam looks like his ideal woman and he would love to get his hands on her 34C chest.

He said: "She is so sexy and mysterious. I'd love to find myself a woman like that, or even take the real deal out on a date!"

And former The OnlyWay Is Essex Lauren's 32E boobs help keep Tommy going on his long journeys.

He said: "I always kep a pic close to hand in the van, she's a real woman is Lauren."

NEW IN TOON: Wilson

It's Toon and gloom after Seagulls loss

By JOHN ANTHONY

STEVE Bruce says his Newcastle players have to buck up their ideas or face a battle against relegation.

After a good opening day win at West Ham, the Toon came crashing back down to earth when Brighton gave them a 3-0 hiding at St James's Park.

Bruce is looking for major improvement first against Morecambe in the Carabao Cup and then when they face a tricky trip to Tottenham at the weekend.

He said: "We were totally disappointed about what happened at the weekend.

"We got off to an awful start and it was one of those really difficult afternoons performance wise.

"The only way you can put it right is with another game on the horizon.

Lesson

"There are other teams that play poorly and don't get the sensational headlines that we get but that's what we have to deal with and have to accept.

"Look, we were nowhere near good enough. Hold your hands up, roll your sleeves up and get on with it again."

Bruce hopes his players have learned their lesson about what happens when they let their standards drop.

He added: "It was nowhere near what's required in the Premier League.

"We're aware of it.

WAKE-UP CALL: Bruce

CROCKED: Maximin

We played poorly and we have to respond. In the past, we've responded and I'm sure we will again."

Bruce is looking for a much improved effort against Morecambe and will give plenty of his first-teamers the chance to put it right on the pitch.

New signings like Callum Wilson could be pressed into action against the League One side.

He added: "We will put a strong team out and there are people that desperately need to play.

"We could have seven games in the first three weeks of the season. Game management of a few will be critical but we will make changes.

"Allan Saint-Maximin had a scan on his ankle.

"He's tweaked it and twisted it, but we don't think it's that serious.

"We don't think he'll make the Morecambe game, but he'll have a chance for Sunday."

OUR FOOTY NEWS IS BACK OF THE NET!

SOLID SILVA: Thiago has been attracted to Chelsea by Lamps

LAMPS WAS SILVA LINING

Frank a major attraction for Thiago

By PAUL THOMAS

THIAGO Silva says boss Frank Lampard is the reason he signed for Chelsea.

The Brazilian is inspired by the way his new manager kept playing into his late 30s.

Silva, 35, thinks that means Lamps will understand how best to manage another veteran player like himself.

The centre-back said: "First and foremost, I came because Chelsea is an amazing team and one of the biggest clubs in the world.

"It helps when you're welcomed so warmly, particularly by a coach who played until relatively recently, because in football there are very strong preconceptions regarding the age of players.

"But I know about his experience when he first arrived at Manchester City, theoretically at the end of his career.

"He endured the same sort of thing as I've gone through.

"So even from the outside, without knowing me personally, he knows how hard I work to remain at the highest level.

"The confidence that he showed in me — that was all it took.

"For me, that confidence was the single most important factor. To hear that he believed in me, that he thought that I could come here and make a positive contribution."

Silva is impressed with his new team-mates and hopes his experience will come in handy with some young players in the squad.

He believes Chelsea have what it takes to mount a title challenge.

Silva added: "With our young group, as well as some more experienced players like our captain Cesar Azpilicueta, we've got all it takes for a great season.

"You can be sure that I'll do everything I can to repay that confidence out on the pitch. We've signed some top players and we've got a squad capable of putting together a great season so that's what we're going to try and do.

"What motivates me, day by day, is the hunger to win; to win everything within my reach.

"Coming to the Premier League, my main goal is to win the league title and I'm certain that we'll be fighting for that every step of the way.

"The team is really strong, we've got a great coach and I've come here to contribute in whatever way I can to ensure that we get as close as possible to achieving those aims.

"That's what motivates me — stepping out onto the pitch, and then winning, winning, and winning some more."

Gunners to shoot out lucky Leicester

RED-HOT PAT: Aubameyang can KO Foxes

LEICESTER host Arsenal in this evening's feature Carabao Cup tie with the winners likely to face a visit to Liverpool in the last eight.

Both sides have won both games in the Premier League without impressing everyone and I do believe the Foxes have played West Brom and especially injury-hit Burnley at a good time.

Burnley missed the opening game of the weekend which would have been a blessing for Sean Dyche given he was so short on numbers at the King Power on Sunday evening.

The Clarets entertain Southampton at Turf Moor at the weekend and this is a huge game for both clubs. Burnley are 7/2 for the drop while the Saints are a best-price of 15/2 at Betway to be playing Championship football next term.

The winners will breathe a huge sigh of relief – it is likely to be another long winter for the losers although we said much the same when Southampton lost 9-0 to Leicester last term. I thought Saints looked naïve defensively and weak in midfield against Spurs on Sunday.

Talking of Spurs and Dele Alli is one of a number pf players on huge wages who Daniel Levy will want to move on this transfer window. He is surely only going to go out on loan this season as Spurs would not get anywhere near their valuation of the England international in the current climate.

Alli is 4/6 to be playing for PSG at the end of the window with Skybet which surprises me with Manchester United 6s, Real Madrid 16s and Juventus 33s.

Leicester are 2/1 at Vbet to win this evening's tie in 90 minutes with the Gunners 6/4 and the draw at 12/5 with Unibet.

Both managers are likely to rotate their squads but there is real belief surrounding Arsenal at present and they get the vote to make the quarter-finals.

Fleetwood entertain Everton in front of the Sky cameras and lifelong Evertonian Joey Barton would love to put one over the Blues. Carlo Ancelotti made 10 changes to his starting XI at home to Salford last week and I would envisage a similar scenario at the Highbury Stadium this evening.

The League One outfit look sure to give Everton a much sterner test than Salford a week ago, but competition for places in Everton's Premier League squad is stiff and I expect the Blues to make it through to the last eight.

Everton to win and both teams to score is the recommendation at 21/10 with bet365.

Manchester United – who were in League Cup action at Luton last night – were poor against Crystal Palace last weekend when Ole Gunnar Solskjaer picked a very ordinary team.

How Daniel James can get a start in a game where you are wanting to make a statement was baffling. United are out to 13/10 to finish the season in the top 4 with Paddy Power with Chelsea 1/2 at BetVictor, Arsenal 7/4 with bet365 and Spurs 3s across the board.

I'm looking forward to seeing Gareth Bale back in a Spurs shirt and their 5-2 success at St Mary's on Sunday was emphatic in the end, but they still looked ordinary in midfield and defensively to me.

We should know more about their prospects after their game at Old Trafford in 10 days' time.

BRYSE IS NOT NICE FOR GOLF SAYS MAC

By ANDY MILLOM

RORY McIlroy thinks Bryson DeChambeau's mad driving in winning the US Open could be bad for golf.

The American lifted the first Major contested this year despite hitting just 23 fairways from the tee across four rounds.

Despite that he managed to do enough to win using brute force to dig the ball on to the green from some unlikely positions.

McIlroy said: "I don't really know what to say, because that's just the complete opposite of what you think a US Open champion does.

"He's found a way to do it. Whether that's good or bad for the game, I don't know, but it's just not the way I saw this golf course being played or this tournament being played. It's kind of hard to really wrap my head around it.

"I think he's taken advantage of where the game is at the minute. I'm not saying that's right or wrong.

"I sort of said, okay, wait until he gets to a proper golf course, he'll have to rein it back in.

Power

"This is as proper as they come, and look what's happened. Yeah, he's got full belief in what he's doing, and it's pretty impressive."

DeChambeau says he has found a way of winning using power more than finess.

And he thinks a lot more players will be following his example in the coming years.

The big man said: "I hope that inspires people to say, 'Hey, look, that's a different way to do it'. Hopefully, my way inspires people. I think I'm definitely changing the way people think about the game."

DeChambeau spent most of the game's lockdown bulking up. He put on the best part of three stone in muscle after spending hours in the gym and drinking protein shakes.

He said: "I all of a sudden got a lot stronger, worked out every day, been working out every day, and all of a sudden — not because of clubs, but because of me, I was able to gain 20, 25 yards.

"There's a lot of young guns that are unbelievable players, and I think the next generation that's coming up into golf hopefully will see this and go, hey, I can do that too."

BALE N' HEARTY

Gareth raring to go says Mourinho

By JOHN ANTHONY

GARETH Bale can't wait to pull on a Tottenham shirt again.

That's the verdict of boss Jose Mourinho who says the Welshman will shrug off his knee injury well ahead of schedule.

It was thought Spurs fans may have to wait a month to see Bale in action after getting crocked on Wales duty. Some estimates said it could even be NOVEMBER before he could get back.

But Mourinho thinks it will be sooner rather than later.

He said: "His motivation is high. He's so happy to be with the club of his heart, he's so happy to come and play for us.

"And when a player has this motivation, many times you can lessen the period of recovery, you can short the period of getting fit and ready to play.

"We're more than happy to have him and help him back to a level that made him one of the best players in the world."

It looks like Bale won't get to play alongside Dele Alli with Paris St Germain keen on the England schemer.

The French giants are readying a bid for the 24-year-old whose form has dipped. Tottenham would want around £60m.
